

MUSIC AT ST CYPRIAN'S

CONCERT SERIES

2026-27

Welcome to our 2026-27 Season!

We are delighted to once again present a series of six concerts in St Cyprian's Church, with financial support from Chamber Music Scotland.

Our first concert features the acclaimed fiddle and accordion duo Roo & Neil, whose creative partnership has won awards from Fèis Rois and Celtic Connections.
In October we present, by popular demand, an evening of film. "Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde" is a 1920 silent movie with Aaron Hawthorne accompanying live on the St Cyprian's organ.
The performers for our November concert are jazz duo, Seonaid Aitken (violin and vocals) and Conor Smith (guitar) in a new programme showcasing the works of Ella Fitzgerald and Stephan Grappelli. Seonaid is an award winning jazz artist and we are delighted to welcome her back.
After a winter break, in the first concert of 2027 talented cellist Andrew Huggan will play the first three of J.S.Bach's solo cello suites.
We are then excited to host a Young Musicians' Showcase with talented students from the Music School of Douglas Academy, Milngavie. This concert is curated by Scottish Opera's principal horn player Sue Baxendale and includes Beethoven's Sextet for horns and strings.
The final concert of the season is from Trio Alma, an eclectic mix of song and dance from around the world to get your toes tapping! The programme includes a range of music from Handel to Piazzolla.

Make sure you don't miss any of these inspirational events by taking out a subscription at the bargain price of £70 for all six concerts. To do this fill out the form at the back of this brochure or visit our website www.musicstcyprians.co.uk and download an electronic form. Single tickets are available online via the website or at the venue for Adults £15, Students £7.50, Children free.

Thank you for your continued support.

Saturday 26th September

ROO & NEIL

Roo Geddes - fiddle
Neil Sutcliffe - accordion

This programme includes songs from the duo's new album Play it Again which uses traditional material from across Scotland, combined with original music from their first album, Homelands.
Roo & Neil have won awards from Fèis Rois and Celtic Connections, and also work closely with the charity 'Live Music Now'

Saturday 10th October

DR JEKYLL and MR HYDE

Aaron Hawthorne - organ

Step into the shadows for a thrilling evening of silent cinema as organist Aaron Hawthorne accompanies the 1920 horror classic "Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde" live on the digital organ at St Cyprian's, Lenzie. Widely regarded as one of the greatest gothic tales ever told, this chilling adaptation brings Robert Louis Stevenson's dark story vividly to life through dramatic imagery and the power of live music. Experience the excitement of silent film as it was originally intended, with every twist, transformation and moment of suspense heightened by a live organ soundtrack. A rare and unforgettable event not to be missed.

Aaron's understanding of cinema organ practice and history, coupled with his passion for the world of silent cinema, sets the stage for a unique and immersive musical experience for the audience.

Music at St Cyprian's is delighted to be part of Aaron Hawthorne's 2026 Silent Film Tour

Saturday 21st November

GRAPPELLI AND ELLA

Seonaid Aitken - violin and vocals
Conor Smith - guitar

Award-winning violinist, vocalist and BBC broadcaster Seonaid Aitken and top jazz guitarist Conor Smith present a swingin' show to celebrate two icons of Jazz - French violin master Stéphane Grappelli and 'First Lady of Song' vocalist Ella Fitzgerald. Featuring Grappelli classics such as 'Sweet Georgia Brown', 'Ain't Misbehavin' and material from his Quintette du Hot Club de France and legendary duets with Classical virtuoso Yehudi Menuhin, and iconic recordings from Ella's Songbook series such as 'Ev'ry Time We Say Goodbye', 'How High The Moon' and hit singles for Decca Records like 'A Tisket A Tasket' and 'Dream A Little Dream'.

"a voice that ranges from crystal clear high notes to a low, silky purr"
ACOUSTIC MAGAZINE

"Seonaid Aitken's bright vocals and breezy virtuosity are simply a pleasure to behold"
